Book Description

In the five years since his parents threw him out for coming out, Eli has made his own way, determined to never change himself for anyone. He’s not against finding Mr. Right, but Mr. Right Now will do just fine.

After Quinn’s boyfriend leaves him to marry a pregnant girlfriend, he has no intention of putting on a polite front at the baby’s christening. He’s bringing the most outrageous date he can find—Eli. Falling in love wasn’t part of the plan, but Eli plays his madly-in-love role so convincingly, Quinn finds himself wishing it was true.
